Merger Between NTT DOCOMO GLOBAL and NTT Digital ~Accelerating the Global Expansion of Digital Business~

December 19, 2025
NTT DOCOMO GLOBAL, Inc.
NTT Digital, Inc.

NTT DOCOMO GLOBAL, Inc. (“NTT DOCOMO GLOBAL”) and its group company NTT Digital, Inc. (“NTT Digital”) hereby announce that the two companies will merge on Sunday, February 1, 2026. The merger will be an absorption-type merger with NTT DOCOMO GLOBAL as a surviving company, and NTT Digital will be absorbed and dissolved.

In response to the growing global adoption of decentralized digital identity and blockchain technologies—particularly in Europe and North America—the merger aims to further strengthen and expand our web3 business.

Following the merger, all operations currently carried out by NTT Digital, including its blockchain infrastructure business (validation service, node operation service), will be continued under NTT DOCOMO GLOBAL.

NTT DOCOMO GLOBAL will continue to address societal challenges in the digital society and contribute to a more prosperous future for society by delivering safe, reliable, and seamless digital experiences to customers around the world.
